When in the Course of mankind events it becomes necessary for one people, We The People, to dissolve the political, authoritative bonds which have connected them with another and to assume among powers of the Creation the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and Nature entitles them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men and women, spirits, are endowed with equal dignity, unity, commonality, sovereignty and goodness by Nature with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, Truth, Love and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Society are instituted among men and women, spirits, deriving their just power from the consent of the Assembled in the Society. All men and women, spirits, endowed by Nature have the inherent capacity of Sovereignty and possesses free will.

That whenever any form of government or authority becomes destructive of these ends, acts against Nature and Natural Law, it is the right of the people, men and women, spirits to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Society, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their safety, prosperity and happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that government long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly, all experience has shown that mankind is more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

But as now when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.

Such has been the patient of men and women, spirits, here in Creation and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government and authority. The history of the present corporate system, legal entity, financial entity, evil and government and program is a history of repeated injuries and usurpation's, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over men and women, We The People, Spirits, Creation. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world, let it be known by all entities in Creation, let it be spoken, let it be written, let it be done!
